LeRoy A. Wetteland
U.S. Navy CPO, WWII
A True American Hero
1920 - 2003

“The day is coming, Kim, when the hardworking men of America won’t be able to make a living and feed their families. Blood will fill the streets of America and fires will burn in every city! Corrupt judges and politicians will be shot. I won’t be alive when this happens. I pray to God that you do not see this in your lifetime!”

LeRoy A. Wetteland, U.S. Navy CPO, WWII

The preceding quote is from my father, LeRoy A. Wetteland, U.S. Navy CPO WWII – a true American hero, to whom I owe my life and dedicate this book. A simple, common-sense hardworking man, my father, like everyone else in his generation, kept his word to all, demonstrated genuine honor, bravely served his country, and left a legacy of freedom that all of us have a responsibility to maintain.

As a young boy, I heard my dad’s stories of war and The Great Depression hundreds of times. Looking back as an adult, I often wonder if my father possessed uncanny, prophetic insight into America’s future.

My deepest, heartfelt prayer is that my father’s heroic service, along with the vision and message of this book, do not fall upon deaf ears. For I truly believe the contents of this book comprise America’s final warning, and the Church’s Last Call.

Introduction

Twenty-two years ago, in a riveting open vision, I witnessed the total collapse of the greatest nation on earth – the United States of America. Currently, America is in a meltdown. Left-wing extremist judges autonomously overturn the majority votes of hardworking, taxpaying citizens. The Bible is becoming the new “hate speech.” Pastors and Christian leaders are facing jail time for refusing to perform homosexual marriages as our religious liberties and free-speech rights face unprecedented attack. Rioting, looting, raging fires, and anarchy are beginning to spill into the streets of our nation’s cities. And ISIS has threatened to raise their flag over our nation’s capitol. America is spinning out of control!

I wrote this book because I believe there is still hope for America. Our nation need not collapse. Although our government is incapable of stopping America from falling off the cliff its racing towards and plunging headlong into the valley of an irreparable apocalypse – you, as a pastor, leader, businessman or woman, dad, mom, teenager, or average citizen; have all the qualities and abilities necessary to lead America back to the God of its Founding Fathers and spare our nation from calamity.

In this book you will learn what made America the most prosperous nation in the world and discover three shocking factors that were common in every great empire just prior to its total collapse – that currently are part of today’s American culture. Most importantly, you will understand why you, and not government, have the power to change America’s future. With step-by-step examples, this book will show you exactly what to do.

As a pastor or leader, you will learn how to influence your Community, Civic, State, and national political leaders, win them to your side, and lead them to Christ. You will discover how to plan, implement, and carry out a “Covert Mission” – allowing you to win hundreds of people to Christ inside of every local business within your municipality, double the size of your church congregations, and gain your community’s respect. You will acquire key leadership abilities and learn how to pastor a church so Christ will respond to your obedience by sending revival to your community. By understanding how to implement the “keys” needed to change your communities, you will foster change in America from the grass roots level.

As a businessman or woman, you will learn how to influence your coworkers and supervisors, unite them to your team, and gain their favor. You will acquire the top-secret skills necessary to function in today’s highly competitive job market, ethically climb the corporate ladder, and succeed without compromising your faith and values. Most importantly, however, you will learn how to lead people to Christ in the workplace without losing your job and advance change in America by impacting your work environment.

So let's journey through this book together and discover what fostered the success of the greatest nation on earth and find out where America took a wrong turn in the road and began to travel down the exact same paths that were previously taken by every great empire that no longer exists. But most of all let's discover how you can improve your status in life, make a difference in your community, and impact America's future for the sake of righteousness. So, let's turn the page, enter Chapter One, and find out what happened on a cold blustery day in Des Moines, Iowa, on March 6, 1993.

Chapter One

The Vision

Saturday, March 6, 1993 was a cold, blustery winter day in Des Moines, Iowa. The sun was shining, and yet, there was a bone-chilling nip in the air. My parents were visiting from their hometown of Aurora, Illinois. Two days earlier, our entire family celebrated my youngest daughter's fourth birthday. The time we shared together was priceless!

After finishing a hearty breakfast at the Village Inn Restaurant in West Des Moines, Iowa, my parents, along with my wife and four daughters, drove to the Valley West Mall for a few hours of shopping. Needing to organize some last-minute details for Sunday's church service, I stepped into my car and headed for the office. Everything seemed normal as I left the parking lot of the Village Inn Restaurant. I had no idea that my life was about to change, forever.

What's Happening to America?

Suddenly, to my right there was a huge explosion! On my left every building was on fire. Rioting, looting, murder, and mayhem filled the streets of America. Hard-working dads and moms, along with their teenagers and children were injured, covered with blood, and walking the streets in a daze trying to process what had happened.

The Coming American Apocalypse

People were running, searching, screaming the names of their relatives, and turning over pieces of rubble hoping to find someone alive.

Police, Fire, and EMT's were overwhelmed by the carnage. Hospital emergency staff had to choose whom to save and whom to let die. Grocery store shelves were empty, unemployment skyrocketed, the U.S. Dollar crashed, and the financial markets dropped thousands of points in one day. The president declared a Nationwide State of Emergency, dispatched the National Guard, and instituted martial law. What was going on? What happened? How did this occur?

What Am I Seeing?

As I blinked my eyes and dried my tears, drivers in other vehicles began blowing their horns and yelling at me to move. I had no idea that I stopped my vehicle in the middle of 22nd Street and was blocking traffic. I pulled my car to the side of the road, parked, and began to cry hysterically.

What was I seeing? I blinked my eyes again, only to discover that I was having an open vision regarding the future of the United States of America. How could this be? I had heard of people having open visions, but did not really know if something like this was even possible.

Like viewing a high-tech Hollywood production on a large screen HDTV, the fires continued to burn before my eyes in sordid, living color. I watched in utter horror! Explosions were everywhere. Fear filled the streets and people were running for their lives. Mothers, with grief-filled eyes, stepped over dismembered body parts, frantically searching for any sign of life that may ignite some hope that their child was still alive. Chaos was everywhere!

America's Cities Are Burning!

As I pondered the vision, the scenery began to flash from city to city. New York, Denver, Boston, Chicago, Atlanta, Los Angeles, Phoenix, and Dallas: Every major city in America was engulfed in flames. Hundreds of fires were burning everywhere!

I recalled David Wilkerson's vision of 1,000 fires burning in New York City alone. Crime, mayhem, and lawlessness filled the streets of every major city in the United States of America! How could this happen to my country? Is this a terrorist attack? Why is God showing me this? Again, I began to sob without control.

With no warning, the scenery abruptly shifted to the White House in our nation's Capital. While peering into the oval office of the U.S. Presidency, a country church-type building was sitting on top of a large, hardwood negotiation table where members of the President's cabinet hashed out decisions for America's future. Waiting with anticipation regarding what I was about to see, the vision, unexpectedly, ended.

Don't Pray for Me! Pray for America!

Trying to dry my tears was futile. I had just witnessed the future destruction of my country and could not stop weeping. A passerby knocked on the window of my car and asked if I was okay. I tried to speak, but was unable to communicate. I just kept crying.

I don't remember if this individual was a man or a woman, but they were very kindhearted and prayed for me. I tried to scream, "Don't pray for me! Pray for America!" But I could not speak. I was sobbing so profusely that the words I tried to utter refused to come out of my mouth. The passerby, who comforted me and prayed, went on their way.

The Collapse of America is Coming

Dazed and astonished, I continued to cry until the front of my shirt was soaked with tears! Before I was able to gather my wits and collect my thoughts, the crystal-clear voice of the Lord began to resonate inside my spirit:

"Unless genuine revival returns to the United States, everything you just saw in this vision will happen in America.

Hundreds of fires will burn every major U.S. city to the ground. Numerous bombs will explode throughout the country. Crime, rioting, looting, and murder will assail from coast to coast. Hatred, racism, and vicious acts of terrorism will strike with such sudden force, that even the FBI will be caught completely off guard. America will be brought to its knees!

The U.S. Dollar will crash, unemployment will skyrocket, the price of food will soar, and grocery stores will be empty.

Banks will close their doors as hard-working dads and moms try to withdraw money that is no longer available.

The Vision

Wall Street investments will drop thousands of points in one day! Police, fire, and rescue workers will be overwhelmed. The National Guard will patrol the streets with military vehicles and your President will institute martial law as China replaces the United States as the world's new superpower!"

America Must Be Warned!

For a moment there was a pause of silence which seemed to last an eternity. At this point, I could almost feel passionate emotion from the heart of God as He pleaded:

"You must understand the mystery and the meaning of the country church-type building sitting on the negotiation table in the oval office of the U.S. Presidency. The day will come when legislation will pour out of Washington in Satan's attempt to cripple and stop the American Church!"

And then, with the most authoritative command I have ever heard in my life, deep within my spirit the Lord's voice thundered, "Go wake up America and the American church!"

I was stunned. Shaking, quivering, and weeping, I was unable to continue on to my office. I drove home and sat on the edge of my bed waiting for my wife to arrive home from shopping.

When Cherie entered the bedroom I tried to tell her what had just happened, but again, I was not able to speak. Both of us sobbed profusely as we tightly embraced one another. When I was finally able to tell my wife what had occurred, she wept, too. Both of us instinctively knew that our nation was in grave danger. In order to avert a horrific apocalypse, I had to awaken America, and the American church.
